Technical Workshop on
"Monitoring Household Coping Strategies during Complex Crises and Recoveries"

Somerset Millennium Hotel
104 Aguirre St., Legaspi Village, Makati City, Philippines

March 21-22, 2011

PROGRAM

DAY 1: MARCH 21, 2011

8:00-8:30 Registration

8:30 - 8:45 Opening Remarks and Overview of the Project
Dr. Celia Reyes, PEP Co-Director and CBMS Project Leader

8:45-12:00 SESSION 1: DESIGNING THE FRAMEWORK FOR UNDERSTANDING AND MONITORING THE COPING BEHAVIORS OF HOUSEHOLDS
In this session, there will be presentations of the framework and the existing practices in monitoring household coping behaviors. The presentation shall also include some discussions on domestic work, time use and other coping strategies of women and children. Moreover, some initial results based on the existing CBMS surveys in participating countries will be presented.

Expected Output*:* A framework that will be adopted to understand and monitor the household coping behavior during complex crises and recoveries

- Household Coping During Crises: A Framework
  - Dr. Shivani Nayyar, UNDP
- CBMS as a Tool to Monitor Household Coping Behaviors: Presentation of some results based on the earlier CBMS surveys
  - Dr. Mary Amuyunzu-Nyamongo, CBMS-Kenya
  - Ms. Alellie B. Sobreviñas, CBMS-Philippines
  - Dr. Celia Reyes, CBMS-Philippines

Summary of Session 1 Agreements

SESSION 2*: DESIGNING THE MONITORING SYSTEM: Definition of Concepts and Types of Information to be Collected
This session shall involve a discussion on the design of the monitoring system. The important issues in designing the monitoring system will be discussed, particularly the definition of concepts and the types of shocks and coping strategies that will be monitored.

Expected Output*:* Agreements on the definition of relevant concepts on shocks and coping strategies and types of information to be collected

- Definition and Types of Shocks, Coping Strategies and Recovery Indicators to be Monitored
  - Mr. Jeremy de Jesus, CBMS-Philippines

Open Forum

Summary of Session 2 Agreements

12:00-1:00 Lunch Break

1:00- 5:00 SESSION 3: DESIGNING THE MONITORING SYSTEM: Important Issues to Consider

Further details on the design of the monitoring system will be discussed during this session, including issues regarding the following: severity, frequency, sequence, combination and duration of shocks; sequence and duration of coping strategies. The participants shall discuss whether and how these will be incorporated in the monitoring system. They will also agree on how the attribution issue will be addressed in the design of the monitoring system.

Expected Output*:* Agreements on whether and how severity, frequency, sequence, combination and duration of shocks will be incorporated in the monitoring system; Agreements on whether and how sequence and duration of coping strategies will be captured; Agreements on how the attribution issue will be addressed

- Important Issues in Designing the Monitoring System: Severity, Frequency, Sequence, Combination and Duration of Shocks; Sequence and Duration of Coping Strategies ; Attribution
  - Ms. Alellie B. Sobreviñas, CBMS-Philippines

Summary of Session 3 Agreements

SESSION 4: DESIGNING THE MONITORING SYSTEM: Developing the Questionnaire

This session shall focus on developing the questionnaire that will be used to collect the required data. The lessons learned during the pre-test of questionnaire in the Philippines will be shared to the participants. This session shall particularly involve the identification of the specific questions which are necessary to collect the required data for monitoring household coping behaviors based on the agreements in the previous sessions. The reference period to be used in the questionnaire will also be agreed upon by the participants. The different approaches in designing the questionnaire and some sample questionnaires will also be presented and the pros and cons of each approach will be discussed.

Expected Output*:* List of questions to be included; Sequence of questions; Reference period to be used; Specific approach to be adopted in designing the questionnaire

- Experiences and Lessons Learned During the Pre-test of the Questionnaire
  - Mr. Marsmath Baris, Jr., CBMS-Philippines

- Different Approaches in Designing the Questionnaire and Some Sample Questionnaires
  - Mr. Jeremy de Jesus, CBMS-Philippines

Summary of Session 4 Agreements

DAY 2: MARCH 22, 2011

9:00-12:00 Presentation of the Revised Questionnaire Based on the Agreements in the Previous Sessions

- Ms. Jaz Quilitis, CBMS-Philippines Team

Open Forum

SESSION 5: DATA COLLECTION STRATEGIES

This session shall focus on the details of the data collection strategies. The project sites in each of the participating countries will be identified and the rationale for selecting these sites will be presented to the group. Furthermore, the frequency of data collection and panel data generation will be discussed during this session. As such, the definition of panel household that will be adopted will be agreed upon during the workshop.

Expected Output*:* List of project sites in each of the participating country; Agreement on the frequency of data collection; Details on panel data generation, including the definition of panel households

- Strategies for Collecting the Data Needed for Monitoring the Household Coping Behaviors During Complex Crises
  - Ms. Novee Lor Leyso, CBMS-Philippines

Summary of Session 5 Agreements

12:00-1:00 Lunch Break

1:00-3:30 SESSION 6: EXPECTED OUTPUTS AND TIMETABLE

In this session, the expected outputs of the project, as well as the timetable of activities will be discussed. The specific roles of those who are directly involved in the project will be discussed in order to ensure that submission of outputs is in line with the agreed timetable of activities.

Expected Output*:* List of expected outputs and updated timetable of activities

- Expected Outputs and Timetable of Activities
  - Ms. Anne Bernadette Mandap, CBMS-Philippines Team
