Poverty and Economic Policy Community-Based Monitoring System Network

CBMS Databases

Introduction

The Community Based Monitoring System (CBMS) is one of the tools developed through the Micro Impacts of Macroeconomic Adjustment Policies (MIMAP) Research Program of IDRC to provide policymakers and program implementers with a good information base for tracking the impacts of macroeconomic reforms and various policy shocks. CBMS attempts to build and strengthen the capacity of planners and program implementers at the national and local levels for a more improved and transparent system of resource allocation and governance. A major objective of the CBMS is to assist poverty reduction. In so doing, there are corollary benefits achieved like building the capacities of local government units, increasing gender equity, and eliciting early warning signs of crisis. Since the early 1990s, IDRC has supported the design and pilot-test of CBMS through MIMAP National Projects in Asia and Africa¹. From 2002 to the present, further development and expansion of CBMS research initiatives has been implemented and managed through the Poverty and Economic Policy (PEP) Network Program with continued support from IDRC.

With the growing number of countries that implement and intend to adopt the CBMS, a regional coordinating body referred as the CBMS Network was formed under the PEP Program of IDRC to facilitate the development and utilization of CBMS for policymaking and governance. The CBMS Network is composed of researchers and analysts specializing in poverty measurement, development and implementation of local monitoring systems, and policy-impact analysis.

The CBMS Network generally aims to provide the national and local governments with up to date information for policymaking and program implementation through the development and institutionalization of a CBMS.

CBMS Norm

The CBMS is an organized way of collecting household level information at the local level. However, CBMS is more than just a data collection system. It seeks to integrate the use of data in local level planning and program implementation. In particular, CBMS intends to fill information gaps for diagnosing the extent of poverty at the local level, determining the causes of poverty, formulating policies and programs, identifying eligible program beneficiaries, and assessing impact of policies and programs. It is also intended to promote evidence-based decision-making.

CBMS is local government unit (LGU)-based while promoting community participation; (2) it taps existing LGU personnel and community volunteers as monitors; and (3) it has a core set of indicators.

CBMS work involves the design, pilot-test and implementation of a methodology for data collection and data processing, validation and utilization of CBMS data for needs identification as well as for the design and monitoring of program interventions at all geopolitical levels. The CBMS research initiative of PEP complements global efforts to fight poverty by providing better statistics or benchmark information for evidence-based policymaking while empowering communities and development leaders in the process and in turn promoting accountability for better management and greater transparency in allocation of resources.

CBMS Initiative

CBMS work involves the design, pilot-test and implementation of a methodology for data collection and data processing, validation and utilization of CBMS data for needs identification as well as for the design and monitoring of program interventions at the national and local levels.

¹ CBMS was earlier developed and pilot tested under IDRC's MIMAP National Programs in the Philippines, Nepal, Vietnam, Senegal, Burkina Faso, Sri Lanka and India.

The challenge for CBMS researchers is to design a monitoring system which can be sustained by the community and local government. This means that the design has to take into consideration the local capacity and then build capacity on aspects of the design where it is needed. Capacity building and the use of the CBMS information is important to ensure institutionalization of the CBMS.

In this regards, the extent of CBMS work varies across countries implementing CBMS in terms of level of research development and implementation, methodology, and indicators being monitored. Some are in the pilot phase while others are expanding to cover more sites in their respective countries.

CBMS research work is currently ongoing in Bangladesh, Cambodia, Indonesia, Lao PDR, Philippines, and Vietnam in Asia and Benin, Burkina Faso, Ghana, Senegal and Tanzania in Africa. CBMS started its implementation in Kenya and Zambia in 2007.

One main output of the CBMS is the database. The CBMS database has been developed and improved to meet stakeholder's, particularly the local government units' needs for information. Developments have been made in encoding and processing data from the questionnaire from manual or tallying to the use of computers. Likewise, several softwares were used and some are developed in order to compute the indicators and generate poverty maps to present results in visual form.

The CBMS database contains all the information gathered from the data collection. The CBMS database is lodge in the community or local government. A CBMS database is also established at each geopolitical level to make it accessible to all users. Establishing a local database enables the LGU to share and disseminate CBMS results to local planners and policymakers, non-government organizations and other interest groups.

Project Title: Developing a Regular Local Level Poverty Monitoring System (LLPMS) in Bangladesh

Administrative Information:

Project Leader: Ranjan Kumar Guha
 Address: Bangladesh Academy for Rural Development (BARD),
 Kotbari, Comilla, Bangladesh
 E-mail: rkrgha@fastmail.fm ; bardbd@hotmail.com

I. Project Abstract

Bangladesh Academy for Rural Development (BARD) in collaboration with the Bangladesh Institute of Development Studies (BIDS) and under the auspices of MIMAP-Bangladesh developed methodology and indicators for poverty monitoring at the local level. In view of the successful outcomes of the pilot-test phase of the local level poverty monitoring system (LLPMS) under the MIMAP-Bangladesh Project, the project intends to extend the coverage area of the LLPMS at the Union level. In the pilot phase, only one ward (village) was covered. For the next phase of implementation, taking one entire Union will be helpful to establish its feasibility at both ward and union levels. An operational LLPMS at the union level will play a complementary role with the national initiatives of poverty monitoring in providing both poverty and development related information and policy guidelines.

II. Project objectives

The general objective of the project is to create a community based poverty-monitoring system at the local level in Bangladesh and ensure active participation of and effective use of relevant information by the local government functionaries.

The specific objectives are as follows:

- i) Implement the methodology and the indicators of the LLPMS, tested under MIMAP-Bangladesh, on a regular basis at the local level;
- ii) Create a data base of the local level poverty and development indicators and a mechanism for regular updating of the data base by the users themselves; and
- iii) Motivate and assist the local government functionaries to use the information in initiating local level plans and develop sustainable linkages with the government organisations, NGOs and the development partners for implementing the plan.

Project Title: Community Based Monitoring System (CBMS) Benin

Administrative Information:

Project Leader: Dr. Marie Odile Attanasso
Address: 03 BP 2200 Cotonou
E-mail: mattanasso@yahoo.fr

I. Project Abstract

The Republic of Benin is situated in West Africa. The economic growth of Benin between 1960 and 1999, like that of the majority of the third world, was characterized by a saw tooth evolution. A diagnostic of the Beninese economy reveals a weakness of growth incapable of reducing poverty, the major economic policy objective. From a financial point of view, more than one in two Beninese is poor or vulnerable to poverty. Into this Beninese national context came the Poverty Reduction Strategy Paper (PRSP). The PRSP defined strategies for strong and sustainable growth and was adopted to put in place said strategies. To permit a real undertaking of the process and a real capitalization on the results, it is indispensable that local communities be associated at every step of the monitoring/evaluation of the PRSP. For this reason, the participation of the target populations will be preferred during the monitoring/evaluation process. For the above reasons, the CBMS-Benin proposes, in a context of decentralization, to observe the living conditions of populations in relatively limited groups (like those of the communes and/or the municipalities of the country).

II. Project objectives

The objective of the CBMS in Benin is to provide the local authorities with information on all the households of the locality so as to monitor their living conditions and to better define local strategies of combating poverty.

The specific objectives are:

- to provide knowledge of the characteristics of the households,
- to define the local development strategies,
- to provide the local authorities with a data base on the living conditions of the households, and
- provide the local authorities with a decision-making tool.

Project Title: Establishing a Commune-Based Poverty Monitoring System in Cambodia

Administrative Information:

Project Leader: Try Sothearith
 Address: National Institute of Statistics (NIS), #365, Monivong Blvd., Boeung Kengkang I, Chamkar Mon, Phnom Penh, Cambodia
 E-mail: sothearith_t@yahoo.com

I. Project Abstract

The Community-Based Poverty Monitoring System (CBPMS) was successfully pilot-tested in Cambodia in 2003-2005 by the Cambodia Development Resource Institute (CDRI) in close collaboration with the National Institute of Statistics and the Seila programme. It provided valuable results, which satisfactorily describes the different facets of poverty in 6 communes in two different provinces and has successfully promoted links between the communes; provincial and national level planning processes through the use of CBPMS data. The project has also developed the capacity of local authorities to implement the CBPMS in their localities.

To meet the long-term objective of creating a sustainable system to locally monitor poverty reduction over time, the project will place emphasis on institution and capacity building at the local level and leadership by the National Institute of Statistics.

There are two parts of the current project or Phase II. The first part is to repeat the implementation of the CBPMS in the piloted six communes that consisted of some 12,000 households and located in two districts in two provinces. The second part of the project is to expand the coverage to cover one full district in one of the poorest provinces. The identified province is Kampong Thom, which was estimated to be one of the three poorest provinces by the national socio-economic survey in 2004.

II. Project objectives

- To select appropriate indicators for commune-based poverty monitoring and analysis.

- ☑ To provide practical, scientifically generated data to commune councils for their effective planning, monitoring and evaluation of development projects.
- ☑ To produce Commune Poverty Monitoring Reports based on the CBPMS results.
- ☑ To build capacity of the selected commune councils in survey methods and data processing, analysis and use.
- ☑ To promote the link between commune and provincial/national level planning processes in utilising CBPMS data.
- ☑ To cement the link between PMATU and NIS and commune councils and to prepare for an eventual nation-wide CBPMS.
- ☑ To promote a firm process of decentralisation which has the high commitment of Government and donors.

Project Title: Implementing a Community-Based Poverty Monitoring System in Ghana

Administrative Information:

Project Leader: Dr. Felix A. Asante
Address: ISSER-University of Ghana, =
E.N. Omaboe Complex, University
Campus, Legon, Accra
E-mail: fasante@ug.edu.gh

I. Project Abstract

In light of the existence of a decentralized governance structure, Ghana has successfully institutionalized the local government concept with the objective to ensure that people are directly involved in the decision-making process and responsible for their own development. With this development, the MIMAP Project in Ghana proposes to implement a Community-Based Monitoring System. The proposed system will use very simple and easy to administer questionnaires on core poverty indicators in which members of the community will collect, process and validate in order to create a sense of ownership. Results will finally be disseminated to development planners and community leaders through workshops and seminars to help policymaking and prioritization of policy programs targeted at the communities.

II. Project objectives

The objectives of the CBMS-Ghana shall be to:

- Provide communities with simple and easy to collect poverty indicators to determine the prevailing standard of living and target developmental efforts at them;
- Develop a regular and up to date core set of welfare indicators to assess the poverty status at the community level; and
- Improve capacity of data collection at the District and Unit Committee levels in order to provide early warning systems in the living standards of the communities.

INDONESIA

Project Title: Promoting the Implementation of Community Based Monitoring System to Local Governments in Indonesia

Administrative Information:

Project Leader: Dr. Sudarno Sumarto
 Address: Jl. Pandeglang 30, Jakarta 10310, Indonesia
 E-mail: smeru@smeru.or.id

I. Project Abstract

Given the relatively poor performance of the traditional poverty identification methods in Indonesia (Suryahadi & Sumarto 2001) and the fact that district governments in Indonesia now have more independence in setting their budgets, it is important that a new poverty monitoring system be developed to ensure better targeting in poverty programs and more efficient government spending.

Therefore, the purpose of the pilot project on Community Based Monitoring System (CBMS) in Indonesia is to design a new method that can accurately identify poor families. The method must have a solid methodological background, easy to be administered by locals, and adaptive to local specific poverty conditions. Furthermore, it should give speedy results and give objective results, which means it should be relatively tamper-proof. Meanwhile, the second purpose of the pilot is to promote CBMS to local governments once it is tested on several villages in Indonesia.

II. Project objectives

The project will gather household information that is necessary in order to create a composite index that will summarize all the multidimensional aspect of poverty into a single figure. Construction of such index is the first effort to be undertaken in Indonesia. We shall use it as a tool to promote the importance of CBMS to local government officials.

Project Title: Establishing a Commune Based Poverty Monitoring System in Lao PDR

Administrative Information:

Project Leader: Dr. Samaychanh Boupha
 Address: National Statistical Center, P.O. Box: 46; Luangphabang Roads.
 Vientiane, Lao PDR
 E-mail: nscp@laotel.com

I. Project Abstract

Based on the learning from the PEP collaboration network, the community-based monitoring system (CBMS) has been widely acknowledged by many countries in the region. The CBMS, which was successfully implemented in countries such as Vietnam and the Philippines, is also of great importance for Lao PDR where there is an urgent need in monitoring poverty towards its eradication and investigate the possibilities to adopt it based on the local need. The National Statistical Center (NSC), the body responsible for poverty analysis and monitoring, seeks to implement the CBMS in Lao PDR. The pilot project will focus on capacity-building at local levels of project sites (2 districts of 2 provinces) to meet the long-term objective of creating a sustainable system to locally monitor poverty reduction over time. The NSC foresees and expects the project expansion of the coverage of CBMS will increase and the techniques of CBMS could be adopted at the national level.

II. Project objectives

The objectives of the CBMS – Lao PDR are as follows:

- To select other appropriate indicators for commune-based poverty monitoring and analysis in addition to existing indicators that determined in the “Village Book”. Offer communities with simple and easy to collect poverty indicators to determine the prevailing standards of living;
- To provide practical scientifically generated data to local authorities for their effective planning, monitoring and evaluation of development projects. To provide policy makers with data to be used for prioritisation of projects, effective planning and monitoring of developmental programmes in the various communities;
- To build capacity of the selected local authorities in data collection. Strengthening research skill of NSC’s staffs

- To strengthening the coordination between NSC and local authorities as well as among local authorities themselves
- To produce Poverty Monitoring Reports based on the CBMS results.

Project Title: Development of a Community-Based Monitoring System in the Philippines

Administrative Information:

Project Leader: Dr. Celia M. Reyes
 Address: Angelo King Institute for Economic and Business Studies,
 Rm. I-1016 Angelo King International Center, Estrada cor. Arellano Sts
 Malate, Manila, Philippines
 E-mail: mimap@dls-csb.edu.ph

I. Project Abstract

CBMS in the Philippines is now being adopted and used as part of the local development planning and monitoring process by a growing number of local government units in the country. Many LGUs all over the country have already form partnership with the CBMS Philippine Team, apportioning resources from their own development funds for the implementation and utilization of the CBMS in their respective localities. Since 1999, the Team has provided free technical assistance to LGUs who are willing to implement CBMS. The CBMS Philippines Team, together with concerned national government agencies such as the National Anti-poverty Commission and the Department of Interior and Local Government, is working towards the expansion of the coverage of the CBMS implementation in the country. As of February 2007, CBMS is being implemented in 28 provinces – 16 of which are implementing it province-wide. This covers 348 municipalities and 24 cities covering 9,088 barangays.

II. Project Objective

The CBMS project aims to collaborate with partner local government units, non-government organizations, donor agencies and other development stakeholders on the implementation and full-scale institutionalization of a CBMS in the Philippines.

Specifically, the project:

- provides technical support to concerned national government agencies (NGAs) and other interest groups on poverty assessment and monitoring system-related initiatives as well as in the building of a national repository of CBMS data.

- conduct advocacy with government and non-government funding organizations for the use of CBMS data in formulating appropriate policies and programs and in targeting eligible beneficiaries
- provide trainings on data collection, data processing, data validation and planning and budgeting using CBMS data
- develop and refine CBMS methodologies to incorporate new developments and demands from partners
- document and disseminate CBMS experiences and related findings of local partners

Project Title: Implementation of Community-Based Poverty Monitoring System in Tanzania

Administrative Information:

Project Leader: Mr. Rangya Muro
 Address: Dodoma Municipal Council
 P.O.Box 1913
 Dodoma, Tanzania
 E-mail: rankya@yahoo.co.uk

I. Project Abstract

The Government of Tanzania has sought to encourage participatory bottom-up planning with a focus on the objectives of poverty alleviation since the year of independence in 1961. In 2004, the Government developed the Opportunities and Obstacles to Development (O&OD) methodology, which defines a process to be followed by the municipalities to achieve participatory planning and monitoring in the context of decentralization. The O&OD methodology is a holistic process, which recognizes the role of the local communities in the identification, preparation, and implementation of development projects. However, since it focuses on community groups, the methodology cannot address the socio-economics of individual people and households, hence less applicable for poverty monitoring purposes.

Dodoma Municipal Council therefore, implemented a Community-Based Poverty Monitoring System (CBPMS) which concurs with the O&OD methodology but goes further to the household level to monitor the poverty status of the individuals in the selected pilot areas and later it can be replicated in a wider area. The CBPMS, with its aim to provide a good information base for policy-making and project-impact monitoring, is highly complementary to the O&OD methodology in establishing a system in place for the reliable datasets within the council's lower tiers and in the effort to achieve a higher standard of living for the marginalized folk.

II. Project objectives

The general objectives of this work are:

1. to develop a comprehensive municipal information system that captures municipal, ward and village level data, and produces reports and analyses that facilitate good planning and decision-making for poverty alleviation, and

2. to promote participatory planning and budgeting through the use of CBMS.

The specific objectives for better interpretation of the general ones are as follows:

- To improve capacity of data collectors at the municipal, ward and village units for better processing and analysis;
- To offer grass root level communities with simple and easy tools to collect data on poverty indicators, to tell the impact of strategies and determine the trend of poverty;
- To provide policy makers with data to be used for prioritisation of projects, effective planning and monitoring of developmental programmes in various communities;
- To facilitate the preparation of poverty profiles and development plans.
- To strengthen the flow of information and dissemination of poverty data and information among the stakeholders in all levels.
- To test a locally feasible data capturing, processing and dissemination system, without necessarily relying on central government resources.

Project Title: Improvement and Implementation of the Community-Based Poverty Monitoring in Vietnam

Administrative Information:

Project Leader: Dr. Vu Tuan Anh
 Address: Socio-Economic Development Center (SEDEC)
 E-mail: vsed@hn.vnn.vn; vtanh@yahoo.com

I. Project Abstract

In the framework of the IDRC-sponsored research project on "Rural Poverty Monitoring in Vietnam" in 2002-2005, CBMS has been piloted in several localities in Vietnam. The proposed project attempts to strengthen the poverty analysis and monitoring capacity of planners and program implementers at the national and local levels in order to extend scope and to increase quality of CBMS implementation. The project will collaborate with local government agencies, NGOs and local academic institutions to provide technical support for implementation of CBMS in 3 provinces: (i) Ha Tay province (in the delta area), (ii) Yen Bai province (in the northern mountainous area); (iii) Lam Dong province (in the southern mountainous area). In each locality, a system of poverty observatories including typical communes from different districts will be selected. A community-based baseline survey (census) will be conducted in the first year in the selected communes and annual sampled surveys will be designed for the later years. The project will support local partners in collecting and processing data, disseminating results, conducting poverty analysis, elaborating poverty reduction policy.

II. Project objectives

General Objective: To improve the monitoring and measurement of poverty and to enhance the capacity of Vietnamese local planners and program implementers in the field of poverty monitoring and socio-economic policy analysis for poverty alleviation.

Specific objectives:

1. To expand and institutionalize an appropriate methodology of CBMS and to provide technical assistance for capacity building and implementing CBMS at localities.

2. To understand better the causes and consequences of poverty, to propose alternative poverty reduction policies, and to improve the monitoring and measurement of poverty.

III. Database information sheet

Pilot area(s): Source of data	Census in 42 communes in provinces of Ha Tay, Yen Bai, Quang Ngai, Lam Dong and Ninh Binh
Reference year for which the data was taken:	2006
Database information :
Number of observation:	Households: 42,000 (approx.) Individuals: 200,000 (approx.)* *with information on age, sex, ethnicity, education, occupation
Number of variables:	100 variables (see list of variables)
Format:	in MS Excel
Software used to store/retrieve information from the database:	MS Excel, SPSS, STATA

IV. List of Indicators/Variables

There are three main sets of indicators: (a) the community situation, (b) household living standards, and (c) implementation of poverty reduction policies and measures.

The community indicators reflect situation of development of community as a whole, such as availability of commune infrastructure (schools, roads, electricity, healthcare facilities, etc.).

The household indicators have been selected basing on livelihood approach: availability of five major types of capital (natural (land), human (labour, qualification), physical (production machinery, housing), financial (income) and social capital (relations with community)).

The third group of indicators reflects progress of implementation of poverty reduction policies and measures (provision of health services, child education, credit for the poor).

The core set of indicators includes the following:

- Number of households and persons
- Age, sex, ethnicity, education, occupation of individuals
- Types and volume of land owned by households
- Number of machines used in production
- Number of animals
- Number of durable consumption goods
- Types of dwelling
- Access to electricity
- Access to safe water
- Availability of sanitary toilet, wash room
- Some diseases (malaria, HIV/AIDS, etc.), mother and child health (mortality, malnutrition).
- Access to health services
- Income sources and volume
- Household's assessment on poverty reasons.
- Access of the poor to some major poverty reduction policies (prioritised credit, health assurance, support for housing improvement).

Project Title: Community Based Monitoring System for Poverty Reduction, Sustainable Development and Sanitation in Lusaka Province of Zambia

Administrative Information:

Project Leader: Mr. Bwalya Kelvin Joseph
Address: Kangwa Mushota John, (Phd, International Development)

I. Project Abstract

The CBMS Pilot was carried out in Mungule and Makishi areas in Lusaka district, Zambia. This was done to ascertain the effectiveness of the data collection instruments and to test the feasibility of implementing the CBMS in Zambia. The implementation of this pilot availed a number of issues that are explored in this paper. These issues have been discussed with different stakeholders and fundamental cornerstones have been agreed upon to make sure the success of the next phase is brought to reality.

According to the understanding gathered on CBMS implementation during this pilot-test, and comparing it with other existing poverty initiatives and monitoring systems, CBMS provides a more multi-dimensional approach to poverty monitoring and alleviation strategies, than existing systems such as CSO social and economic censuses which only occur once in five years. The use of the bottom-up approach in the implementation of the CBMS renders it a competitive edge against other poverty-alleviation techniques in place today.

This paper outlines the technical feasibility of implementing the CBMS in Lusaka province. It discusses the CBMS methodology, data collection instruments and approaches developed during the pilot-testing. The indicator system is included together with the data collection procedures, processing, validation and database building procedures that have so far been instituted. The problems faced and how they were resolved, lessons learnt are also given a considerable portion of the technical-artistry discussion that is laid out in this paper. It goes further and lays a foundation for the full scale implementation of the project that is anticipated in the second phase.

II. Project objectives

The proposed objectives of the CBMS – Zambia are as follows:

- To strengthen local capacity for research and policy analysis in support of formulation of appropriate interventions and policies for reducing poverty.
- To rationalize and synchronize with the operations of state institutions responsible for collecting information pertinent to analyzing and monitoring poverty
- To set up mechanisms for the effective transfer of knowledge from experts availed through technical assistance to local experts.
